

Miss Weston
21 Place Daumesnil
Paris

Ms. A. 7. 3. 53

176. 6/2 Brunswick St.
July 9 - 1852

Dearest Miss Weston,

By skilful management this little additional scraps may be squeezed into the envelope, so I will just add the assurance I had not room to give in my note to Emma, that whatever poor Miss O'Reilly can derive from professional aid or friendly sympathy will be freely bestowed, & that it will be a source of deep gratitude to us to be permitted to be in any degree instrumental to her relief or comfort. Miss Father has not time to tell you a quarter of the things we wish; one was that Miss Lushington wrote to him just before we left home announcing the speedy prospect of the Crafts having a family which will somewhat complicate their de-cational arrangements. Miss Lushington has heartily interested in them, & there is no doubt they will be well cared for. She is anxious us to go to Beckham Park in August to talk over matters which we shall endeavour to do.

You can't think how badly we want you with us. How often we make loving mention of you.
Miss Pugh feels like a very dear & long lost friend already, but there is no chance of her interfering in any way with our thoughts & feelings for you. There are so many things going on about the cause, all over the three kingdoms that they baffle all attempts to write about it.
Miss Pugh has taken to study the recent proceedings with meritorious diligence. In the with much love & affection Lushington
